

HBCUs are an integral part of the nation's higher education system, particularly when it comes to bright futures for African-American students. Diverse Issues in Education has named its top 20 HBCUs based on criteria such as diversity, graduation statistics, academic programs and other factors. Dillard University is number eleven on the list.

Read more about this top HBCUs on diverseeducation.com...

or in thetriangletribune.com...

---