For Immediate Release: February 16, 2007

Contact: Heather Wong, (202) 226-3314
Heather.Wong@mail.house.gov
Contact: Karen Celestan - kcelestan@dillard.edu

Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity to Hold Field Hearings in the Gulf Coast
"Solving the Affordable Housing Crisis in the Gulf Region Post Katrina: Why no progress and what are the obstacles to success?"

Washington, DC – Rep. Maxine Waters (D-CA), chairwoman of the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity, has announced that the subcommittee will hold two field hearings in the Gulf Coast. The hearings will address the post-Hurricane Katrina affordable housing crisis in the Gulf Coast region.

Who: House Committee on Financial Services, Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity

What: Field Hearing: "Solving the Affordable Housing Crisis in the Gulf Region Post-Katrina: Why no progress and what are the obstacles to success?"

When: February 22 - 23, 2007

Thursday, February 22, 2007 – 2 p.m.
Lawless Memorial Chapel
Dillard University, 2601 Gentilly Blvd.
New Orleans, LA

Friday, February 23, 2007 – 9 a.m.
Good Deeds Center
15101 Madison Street
Gulfport, MS

Witnesses to be announced.